

Drum Corps International

Marching Music's Major League™

Video Production Intern, Summer 2020

Indianapolis, IN

Drum Corps International Video Production Interns will travel frequently, think on the fly, meet strict deadlines, and be autonomous. The ability to work individually or as a team is paramount.

This internship is all about honing real-world video production skills and will add significant weight to your portfolio/resume reel.

Role Responsibilities

- Intern will be involved with creative and pre-production, shooting, editing, as well as aspects of coordinating, planning and executing video shoots
- Distribute content on multiple platforms including in-stadium video-boards, YouTube, Facebook, and other social platforms

Required Skills/Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in undergraduate video production courses, or similar field
- Working knowledge of Adobe Premiere Pro, Final Cut Pro, or similar editing software
- Working knowledge of Adobe Photoshop
- Working knowledge of video camera operation
- Ability to think on the fly, meet strict deadlines, and be autonomous

Bonus Points

- Experience with graphic design
- Working knowledge of Adobe After Effects
- Live video production experience

The Perks

- This internship offers a per-diem
- Access to all levels of the team
- Paid travel to select DCI events across the United States
- All-access pass to the Drum Corps International Tour

Have what it takes?

Email internships@dc.org with a cover letter showcasing your personality, a resume showcasing your relevant experience, and links to previous video projects or a resume reel.